TIM FERGUSON

Director and Facilitator Leading Teams

Tim Ferguson has a strong background in senior management, leadership, and vocational education and training.

He is passionate about fostering high-performing teams with strong relationships and a shared purpose.

Tim joined Leading Teams in 2012 after witnessing the transformative impact of the program while in senior management at the Gordon Institute of TAFE in Geelong, which he helped lead to become the most successful TAFE commercially in Australia.

Tim helps clients take ownership and be accountable for their behaviour at both an individual level and as a part of a team.

Guided by his belief in the power of determination and self-reflection, Tim has helped countless teams and organisations across Australia improve their culture and build high performance.

RADMILA DESIC AM

Australian Institute of Building
Queensland Chapter President and NAWIC Life Member

Radmila Desic AM migrated to Australia at seven after an earthquake destroyed her family home in the former Yugoslavia. With a family history in construction, Radmila began her career as an apprentice carpenter joiner in 1992.

As a woman working in a male-dominated industry, Radmila faced challenges but discovered her voice could be influential and drive change.

She has expanded her career to include a broad range of knowledge regarding the training system, apprenticeship and traineeship models and guidelines, and retention of women in construction.

In 2021, Radmila was named a Member of the Order of Australia for her significant service to women in the construction industry and to unemployed youth.

She is the Australian Institute of Building Queensland Chapter President and National Association of Women in Construction Life Member.
